GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS AND GUIDELINES

M.G.L. Chapter 41 § 98D states each city or town shall issue to every full time police officer employed an identification card bearing his/her photograph and the municipal seal. Such card shall be carried on the officer's person, and shall be exhibited upon lawful request for purposes of identification.

All Employees of the Lexington Police Department shall be issued an identification card, which includes the employees name, photograph and the Town Seal in addition to other identifying characteristics, including the signature of the Chief of Police.

PROCEDURE

A. Public Requests [22.2.7(a)]

1. The Lexington Police Department recognizes that there may be times when a member of the public wishes to confirm the identity of an employee.
 - a. Department members shall give their rank (if applicable), last name and badge number to any person requesting such information, except where the physical safety of a member of the Department is threatened.
 - b. If a person requests to see the ID of a Department employee, the employee will display his/her ID, except where the physical safety of a member or the Department is threatened.

2. This does not require the employee to physically hand the ID Card to the inquiring person, but they must allow the person to view it within a reasonable distance to read the listed information.
3. Officers operating in undercover situations shall be exempt from any requirement to provide or display their ID.

B. Identification Cards (ID)

1. Department Identification Cards shall be issued by and remain the property of this agency; if the Chief of Police or designee directs an employee to return ID cards then he/she must do so.
2. ID Cards are to be used only for police-related activities. Misuse of a Department ID card may result in disciplinary action.
3. Identification cards shall be issued to:
 - a. Sworn Police Officers
 - b. Retired/Special Police Officers
 - c. Full and Part time Dispatchers
 - d. Animal Control Officer
 - e. Parking Control Officer
 - f. Police Cadets
 - g. Police Mechanic
 - h. Civilian Employees
 - i. School Crossing Guards
 - j. Members of the Traffic Unit

C. The Law Enforcement Safety Officers Act allows police officers to carry firearms in all 50 states. Sections 926B and 926C have been added to Chapter 44 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

1. Section 926B: Carrying concealed firearms by qualified law enforcement officers. State and local police officers may carry a concealed firearm in any state if they are qualified by their department and possess their agency photo ID. To be qualified, officers must:
 - a. Have statutory powers of arrest;
 - b. Be authorized by their agency to carry a firearm;
 - c. Not be the subject of any disciplinary action by their agency;
 - d. Meet the qualifying standards for their agency in firearms proficiency;
 - e. Not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs; and
 - f. Not be prohibited by federal law from receiving a firearm.

2. Section 926C: Retired officers carrying concealed firearms. Qualified, retired officers may also carry a concealed firearm in any state, provided that they possess their current agency photo ID and are:
 - a. Retired in good standing, or retired as a result of a disability other than mental instability;
 - b. Are not under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
 - c. Are not prohibited by federal law from receiving a firearm; and
 - d. Have met the standards for firearms proficiency – at their own expense – for active officers within the past 12 months.
 - e. Are in possession of their Department issued I.D. with LEOSA Language printed thereon.
