

LEXINGTON CENTER COMMITTEE (LCC)

Members: 11
Appointed by: Board of Selectmen
Length of Term: 3 year staggered
Appointments made: September 30
Meeting Times: 3rd Thursday of the month at 8:30 a.m.
and as posted

Description: The Lexington Center Committee is charged with advising the Board of Selectmen and the business community on managing change in the center in order to ensure its long-term viability while preserving its historical significance and the integrity of adjacent neighborhoods. This Committee focuses on achieving commercial diversity, increased social and cultural activity, enhanced aesthetics, improved traffic flow, and increased parking in Lexington Center.

Criteria for Membership: Members represent town government (e.g., Selectmen and Planning Board), the Chamber of Commerce, and the business community. Neighborhood residents and interested citizens are also encouraged to become involved.

Ref.: Charge adopted by Selectmen on January 2, 1980.
Revised October 21, 1986.
Revised October 31, 1988 to increase membership from 9 to 11.
Selectmen designated as Special Municipal Employees on January 9, 1989.
Selectmen reaffirmed designation as Special Municipal Employees on January 18, 2006.