West Farm

13 acres, 0.8 miles of trail. Trails at West Farm cross open meadows, pass through a small forested area, and follow part of a historic cart path, located just above Wilson Farm. A walk along the cart path offers a unique view of the cultivated fields of Wilson's farm, one of the few working farms remaining in Lexington.

Access is from two locations on Oak Street, which is just east of the intersection of Massachusetts Avenue and Pleasant Street). Limited parking is available on Oak Street.
