

The Lexington Public Schools 10-Year Master Planning materials are designed to assist decision-makers in the prioritization of future capital planning projects, large and small. The most recent iteration was completed in May 2021 and concludes that Lexington High School is the most critical priority in terms of current LPS facilities needs. These materials are the product of thoughtful deliberation by the LPS Master Planning Advisory Committee.

You can access the final plan and other resources below.

- LPS Master Facilities Plan Website, including ongoing updates
- LPS Master School Facilities Planning Compendium \(May 2021\)
- LPS Master School Facilities Technical Plan \(DiNisco Design, March 2020\)
- Previous Master Facilities Plan Advisory Committee Meeting Materials & Minutes

Recent Updates:

- FY2023: Annual October 1 Enrollment Review \(Preliminary Analysis\)
- August 30, 2022: LHS Project Update \(Superintendent Report, Item #8\)
- August 24, 2022: Master Planning Advisory Committee Charge Update
- May 2022: FY23: Spring Enrollment Update \(see also Superintendent's Report \(Item #5\)\)
- April 2022: Annual Town Meeting: LHS Emergency Equipment Repair funds - Presentation Video

Lexington School Master Planning Advisory Committee

March 9, 2023 from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. This meeting will be conducted in person and remotely.

Central Office, 146 Maple Street

Please click the link below to join the webinar:

<https://lexingtonma-org.zoom.us/j/91511570454>

Attendees: Melissa Battite, Sandra Beebe, David Coelho, Michael Cronin, Rick DeAngelis, Julie Hackett, Maureen Kavanaugh, Kathleen Lenihan, Alan Levine, Jess Quattrocchi, Mark Sandeen, Deepika Sawhney, Michael Schanbacher, Dan Voss

Anticipated Outcomes

- A shared understanding of the pros and cons associated with a central office relocation
- A vote of the Master Planning Committee to inform the School Committee's decision-making process

Introductions/Review of the 2-15-2022 Minutes

I. Approval of the MPC Minutes of February 15, 2023

II. New Business

- March 1st MSBA Board Meeting Vote
- School Building Committee: LHS Town Update

III. Presentation and Vote

- Administration's Presentation to the Master Planning Committee on the Relocation of Central Office
- Vote on Recommendation to Inform School Committee Decision-Making

RECEIVED

2023 06 Mar, 3:10 pm

TOWN CLERK

LEXINGTON MA